Texariana, Ark. March 12.—(Spectal.)—The grand Jury of Bowle county, Texas, in session at floaton, has returned about twenty indictments against parties in Texariana for viciniting the local option law. In Marca, 195, the county voted a big indurity for prohibition for two years. Lest October, however, the computation for the control of the county voted a local election for Texariana. The district court dealared that such and a nuilley, but the whisty men went ahead with their program and held the election, if held, would be a farm and a nuilley, but the whisty men went ahead with their program and held the election the temperature propie taking no part. The county judge then despite the declaration of the district court ruied the election valid and flectures was duly lesied to a function of Texariana applicants, who opened their saloons shout a month age. When the district court convoined a few days up to find an indiction of the election illegal and instructed the grand fury to find an indiction of the shouth in the man the first court winder the law must be tried before the county judge, and as the state has no argued county folder is elected. With will be in November.
